

Wild Blueberry Bubble-gram

- A. The _____ is a large mammal that loves to eat wild blueberries and can be often seen in the fields.
- B. Large flying insects pollinate wild blueberry bushes every spring. _____ have been known to work in the cold, the morning, and through rain.
- C. Most wild blueberries flower on a low-growing _____.
- D. Wild blueberry bushes require bees, birds, and bats to _____ their flower before they can grow fruit.
- E. The most popular pollinator is the _____, 75,000 hives visit Maine wild blueberries to insure a plentiful crop.
- F. The original wild blueberry plant will send out rhizomes to create more plants to mimic itself. The plants that grow are a _____ of the original plant.
- G. One of the most vital components for farming comes from the sky. Without _____ wild blueberries would not grow.
- H. Wild blueberries start growing as white berries until they are _____ and turn into their signature blue color.
- I. Reminding people they are dangerous, one of the most signature colors for a bee is _____.

_____ ○ _____

_____ ○ _____

_____ ○ _____

_____ ○ _____

_____ ○ _____

_____ ○ _____

_____ ○ _____

_____ ○ _____

_____ ○ _____

_____ ○ _____

_____ ○ _____

Bonus Word

_____